GEORGIAN LANDSCAPE DESIGN NAMED BEST OF GWINNETT 2007

ATLANTA – October 11, 2007 – Gwinnett Magazine announced Georgian Landscape Design as best landscaping firm for Best of Gwinnett 2007.

“It came as a big surprise when my director of public relations and marketing informed me that GLD had won Best of Gwinnett 2007. This is an incredible honor for any company, especially since we are only two years old,” says Ed Szczesniak, owner of GLD.

“Best of Gwinnett is an annual award given to the best companies and firms in Gwinnett County and is voted on by the community,” said Sarah Forbes of Gwinnett Magazine. “We were so pleased to see a young, local company like GLD win for 2007.”

“We have always had wonderful feedback from our clients and knowing this award was voted on by the community makes all of the time and effort we put into the company worthwhile,” said Jeanine Szczesniak, director of public relations, marketing, and web development for GLD.

Georgian Landscape Design got its start in Norcross before it recently moved to Suwanee. GLD has been contracted for projects all over Gwinnett, Fulton, and Forsyth counties and continues to engage in residential and small commercial projects all over Northeast Georgia.
